Students of European Academic Institutions affiliated to IBM Skillsbuild program: Obtain FREE premium IBM Power Systems education at Common Europe Congress, Prague, Czech Republic, 11 – 14 June, 2023
Read full information below and register for FREE by 20 May

Some students @ COMMON Europe Congress 2022, Alicante, Spain

What do we offer	Common Europe aims to offer to 30 Computer Science final- year Bachelor or Master degree students from European acknowledged academic institutions of IBM Skillsbuild program: • A free registration to its Common Europe Congress, 11-14 June, Prague, worth € 1350 at standard member rate • Accommodation participation of € 40/night and up to € 160 in a youth hostel or hotel of your choice • Only travel and other expenses are to be supported by students.
How to participate	30 registrations are available up to 20 May, 2023. REGISTER NOW https://comeur.org/cec-2023-registration/ Use the discount code CEST_100_SJ08 to obtain full discount. Contact Ranga@comeur.org
Post-congress requirement	Common Europe requires, from each student a post-congress one-page report highlighting the congress, what they learned and how it will help them to start their careers. It needs to be in English.
The Congress and the dedicated NextGen track	The congress proposes 125+ sessions and 10 workshops over 3 ½ days of premier IT education with emphasis on latest advances on IBM Power Systems from worldwide IBM & industry experts. A dedicated NextGen track initiates students and young employees to the beauty of IBM Power. There are unparalleled opportunities to network with passionate IT personnel, students, senior decision makers, IBM and industry experts and like-minded professionals from across Europe. Social events help to build friendship in a relaxed atmosphere in beautiful Prague, Czech Republic, one of the best architectural cities in the world. For full congress details visit https://comeur.org/. The NextGen education track details: https://commoneuropecongress2023.sched.com/overview/type/NextGen
About Common Europe & NextGen Common Europe	Common Europe, a user community of IBM based solutions, is an umbrella organization of European national IBM Power Systems user groups. Our aims are to "boost networking, share experiences, provide advanced education and training, influence IBM products and solution strategy and accelerate an ongoing open dialogue with IBM". Common Europe is a non-profit community of companies, organizations and individuals using IBM solutions on IBM Power Systems. The NextGen Common Europe initiative focuses on IBM Power Education to students from all over Europe to become the future torchbearers of Common Europe.